Playground Pitstop is coming Sunday, August 14

Volunteers are coming together to spruce up our church playground on Sunday August 14, from 1:30 – 3:00pm. We will be staining the existing wood playscape, touch up painting the basketball backboard supports and weeding the area. Why is it called 'Pitstop'? Because we plan to get it all done really fast with many hands, just like the racing car pit crews. Wear your grubbies and come join in work and fellowship to make our outdoor space for kids even better.

To join the crew, please email Linda@fpchs.org to sign up. Kenny Stewart from the Building and Grounds committee will send you all the details prior to the event.

Summer Choir Camp for Children, August 23-25

Invite your children, grandchildren, your neighbor's children, to our Summer Choir Camp for Children for ages 5-13. The participants will get to sing, learn basic music principals such as musical symbols, how to read and write them, they'll be introduced to music history and composers, ring bells, and play musical games. All that in 2.5hrs from 9:30am-12pm on August 23-25. On Sunday, August 28, at 10am the participants will sing for the worship service at FPCHS. The program is led by Monica Pavel Kissinger with the help of wonderful volunteers. If interested, contact Monica at monica@fpchs.org.
